[V] Vote-auction LEGAL DEPARTMENT reporting on current cases

currently we have the following status:

- # 18 civil-lawsuits filed against vote-auction and related individuals and companies
- # 15 general attorney investigations running
- # 1 lawsuit filed by vote-auction against corenic.org
- # 112 Kg [approx. 250 pounds] of legal documents have been received by postal services or via Fax.
- # 3 domains not delegated without any notice!:
voteauction.at, vote-auction.net and vote-auction.org

we finally have to consider this as corporate legal art!
[Our art department is considering an offer to do an exhibition in the SF MOMA, with exclusive legal documents].

Our legal department is sure that all cases will be dropped after evidence can be revealed. [V]ote-auction does not sell or buy votes, vote-auction does not even solicitate the buying or selling of votes. [V]ote-auction is simply a platform dealing with the american election and the voting-process in general and offering an Auction related to these topics. Enjoy!
